

JOHN DREW COMES WITH DOUBLE BILL

Will Present "The Will" and "Tyranny of Tears" at the New National.

At the National next week John Drew will appear for his annual Christmas week engagement. He will be seen in his two latest successes, "The Will," written by J. M. Barrie, and "Haddon Chambers' "Tyranny of Tears," which will compose a delightful double bill. Those who have seen him in these plays say that never have his fine powers been exerted with better effect, for in them he has proved that his power of expressing pathos is as great as his purely comedy gifts.

In Mr. Drew's supporting company will be Mary Boland, who has been seen with Mr. Drew in previous appearances here. Laura Hope Crews, another beautiful woman and accomplished actress, is a member of the cast, and Herbert Bruce, Elliott Dexter, the character actor, and Sidney Herbert are among Mr. Drew's associates this season.

"The Conspiracy," a police-detective comedy, will be the Christmas week attraction at the Columbia. Charles Frohman presents the piece with John Emerson in his original role of Winthrop Claydon, supported by the initial cast. One of the principal thrills in this exciting play is the fight in the dark of the third act, when amid crashing windows and flying furniture, the police capture the ringleaders of a band of criminals.

"The Rosary," a dramatization of Edward E. Rieu's book of the same name, will be the attraction at Poll's next week. The song, "The Rosary," is known and sung in every land in which the English language is spoken, and its haunting melody has caused it to be translated into many languages. The play tells a direct and forceful narrative of love and hate, vengeance and self-sacrifice, triumph and defeat.

At the Academy next week Rowland and Clifford will offer William Anthony McGuire's new play of wealth and poverty, entitled "The Cost of Living." The play relates the experience of two sisters who work in a large department store, and upon the low wages earned strive to support their mother and themselves. Their studies are interrupted by the store's carnival Friday night. Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock the children's toy store, a big Christmas treat, will give away handsome toys to lucky youngsters for the last time.

A "matinee d'ansante" every afternoon will be inaugurated next week at Keith's, as an additional feature attraction. It will be given from 1 until 2 p. m. in the promenade lounge, and special matinee shows will be given. The Christmas bill will be laden with stellar attractions, the chief comedy hit being "The Man Who Remembered," by Paul Morton, with Naomi Glees, will appear in the musical comedy, "The Lady of the Bungalow." Third in order will be the English artist, Bert Carroll, billed as "the man with the Tetrazzini voice," and the gorgeous "Baby Helen," eight-year-old comedienne, who is already an established headliner in vaudeville. De Witt Burns, and Torraine, will appear in "The Awakening of Toys." The youngling McBurns are another addition. Ed Morton, the talkologist and topical singer, will add to the bill. "The Poodles" will please big as well as little people and the Pathé motion pictures will bring to view recent international happenings.

The attraction of the Gayety next week will be the Barney Gerard Company in "The Follies of the Day, 1914," a two-act musical comedy. "The Garden of Eden," a young American comedienne, is featured in the role of a girl visiting in Germany, who masquerades in the role of a flower girl. Billy McIntyre, Mildred Stoller, Anna Propp, Joe Rose, Mart Fudge and others are among the list of principals. Edith Sullivan are featured in a series of pantomime work. Gertrude Hayes and her dancing Bricks are seen in a specialty, but the main feature is the one-act burlesque "Without the Law," travesty on the play "Within the Law."

"Japan in Korea" will be the subject of the last of the Burton Holmes Travelogues, which will be shown at the Columbia Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock, and repeat again Monday afternoon at 2:30, when he will bid Washington farewell for another year. The subject is particularly timely, as it affords opportunity to compare the colonial policies in the Philippines.

"Traffic in Souls," the moving picture sensation of the year, has been booked in the regular playhouses throughout the country, and thus placed on a par with the big feature films which cost many thousands of dollars to create. This picture, aside from "The Lure," is the most vivid and eloquent expose of white slave conditions, and will be seen at the Belasco next week every afternoon and night.

Sunday afternoon and night, "Les Miserables," the photoplay of Victor Hugo's great novel, will again be shown at the National. Interest in this film shows no abatement, and its popularity is clearly attested by the crowds that have attended every performance.

Monday afternoon, at the Belasco, the Triangle Club of Princeton University will present for the first time in Washington its 1913 musical review, entitled "The Pursuit of Happiness." From all accounts reaching Washington the offering is one of the most pretentious ever attempted by the university boys, who have constructed the entire entertainment, from writing the book and lyrics, composing the music, and making the orchestration.

The trafficking in human flesh and blood has become so widespread and the methods used in securing victims so bold that the public is awakened to

DUKE HAS SOLD HIS HOUSE IN LONDON

DUKE OF MANCHESTER. Husband of the former Miss Zimmerman, daughter of a Cincinnati magazine, has sold his London house, a part of the ancestral estate. The house stands in Grosvenor Square, and is one of the largest in this aristocratic neighborhood.

A need for a general campaign of education on this subject. The quickest, surest, and most interesting method of reaching the attention of the American public is by means of the motion picture, as presented at the Majestic next week, beginning Sunday. In the white slave feature picture, entitled "The Inside of the White Slave Traffic," by Samuel H. London, special United States Government white slave investigators.

Christmas week will be observed at the Casino with a program appropriate to the season. One of the big numbers of the bill will be Melrose, English hypnotist, in an exhibition of interest. Four additional offerings, to be announced later, will include comedy, song, and dance. Each night there will be an added attraction, including the "Surprise Party" on Monday night; the Country Store, Tuesday and Wednesday nights; the prize dancing, contests, Thursday night, and the laughable amateurs' carnival Friday night. Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock the children's toy store, a big Christmas treat, will give away handsome toys to lucky youngsters for the last time.

ACID STOMACHS ARE DANGEROUS

Nine-tenths of All Stomach Trouble Said to Be Due to Acidity.

A Physician's Advice on Cause and Cure.

A famous physician whose successful researches into the cause and cure of stomach acid in external diseases has earned for him an international reputation, said in the course of a recent lecture that nearly all indigestion, as well as many diseases of the vital organs, were directly traceable to a deranged condition of the stomach which in turn was due nine times out of ten to excessive acidity, commonly termed sour stomach or heartburn, which not only irritated and inflamed the lining of the stomach, but also set up gastritis and stomach ulcers. It is interesting to note that he condemns the use of patent medicines as well as of medical treatment for the stomach, stating that he and his colleagues have secured remarkable results by the use of ordinary blunted magnesia, which, by neutralizing the acidity of the food, removes the source of the trouble. He contends that it is as foolish to treat the stomach itself as it is to treat a man who stepped on a tack to rub liniment on the foot without first removing the tack. Remove the tack and the foot will heal itself—neutralize the acid and stomach troubles will disappear. Irritating medicines and medical treatments are useless, so long as the contents of the stomach remain acid; remove the acidity, and there will be no need for medicine—the inflamed lining of the stomach will then heal itself. Sufferers from acidity, sour stomach or heartburn should get a small bottle of blunted magnesia from their druggist, and take a teaspoonful in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water after meals, repeating in fifteen minutes, if necessary, this being the dose which the doctor has found most efficacious in all cases.—A.B.T.

14 OPPORTUNITIES ALIKE IN APPEAL

Generous Givers Declare Each Worthy As the Others, and Make No Choice.

"Of the fourteen cases you have cited, each seems so worthy that I will leave the choice to you where this small sum shall be expended.
"With it goes my best wishes for the splendid work done winter and summer by the Associated Charities.
"That is a part of just one of the letters which are now coming daily to the Associated Charities offices since the appeal of the FOURTEEN OPPORTUNITIES has been made public.
It is doubtless an expression of the good will of many others.
With Christmas only a week away the sponsors of this fund urge that contributions be made immediately. The benefits of GIVING NOW are two-fold. First, it encourages those for whom the money is being collected and assures them of their Christmas happiness.

This Home-Made Cough Syrup Will Surprise You

Costs Little, But There Is Nothing Better At Any Price. Fully Guaranteed.

Here is a home-made remedy that takes hold of a cough almost instantly, and will usually conquer an ordinary cough in 24 hours. This recipe makes a pint—enough for a whole family. You couldn't buy as much or as good ready-made cough syrup for $2.50.
Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir 2 minutes. Put 25 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a pint bottle and add the Sugar Syrup. This keeps perfectly in a corked bottle—children like it. It braces up the appetite, and is slightly laxative, which helps and eases. You probably know the medical value of pine in treating bronchial asthma, bronchitis, spasmodic cough and whooping cough. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiac and other natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this combination.
The prompt results from this inexpensive remedy have made friends for it in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada, which explains why the plan has been imitated often, but never successfully.
A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind. Adv.

who will be benefited by the FOURTEEN OPPORTUNITIES.
The other effect will be to encourage others to follow YOUR example.
The appeal of Miss Margaret Wilson to the "Spur" advocates will doubtless be far-reaching, and it is believed will stimulate greater interest in the FOURTEEN OPPORTUNITIES.
One man who has been a contributor to the OPPORTUNITIES for three seasons encloses $50 for NO. 6, the family in which the breadwinner is disabled and the wife an invalid from overwork. Your contribution is needed. SEND IT NOW.

Steal Hospital Food For Saloon Lunches

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 18.—Discovery that employees of the city hospital have been stealing food and selling it to saloonkeepers to serve as free lunch was announced today by Acting Mayor Jennings, who has been investigating. The arrest of an employee caught leaving the hospital with a ham under his arm started the probe. A cook admitted that fourteen chickens and two dozen eggs taken in two nights found their way to a saloon.
